

ABOUT

The CITE was founded by educators, for educators to support and share innovative teaching and learning experiences that encourage others to reflect upon and transform their own practice.

The CITE's mission is to provide research, resources, and professional development to support and promote innovative learning experiences that benefit humanity.

The CITE is a registered 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization that awards scholarships to students and grants to organizations and educators. The CITE also provides resources to promote innovative teaching methods and programs based on local needs and current education research.

The CITE...

BUILDS and INSPIRES a community of transformative educators through web-based events and annual conferences.

The CITE offers web-based events that complement our areas of focus and respond to the specific needs of our members. In late summer, the CITE holds its annual conference featuring local educators sharing first-hand classroom experiences. During the annual conference, emphasis is placed on reflective dialogue and hands-on active engagement. Attendees will leave feeling energized and inspired to begin the school year with transformative mind-sets and a renewed passion for education.

The CITE...

CONTRIBUTES to the learning community via a quarterly publication and an interactive, resource-rich website.

The CITE offers membership in a community of dedicated education professionals interested in innovative teaching methods and education research. Members receive the CITE Quarterly, access to resource archives including lessons, videos, and past issues of publications, and priority registration and discounts to events including the annual conference, professional development opportunities, and our anniversary celebration.

Annual Memberships
Educator-Digital:	$49
Educator-Physical:	$59
Student-Digital:	$29
Organizational:	$189

(Membership Year Runs Jan-Dec)

GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS

The CITE...

INVESTS in innovative approaches to teaching and learning by awarding scholarships to students and grants to organizations and educators.

The CITE offers several funding opportunities on an annual basis.

Transforming the Classroom Grant- $500-$3,000

Transforming the Educator Grant - $500-$1,500

Transforming the Student Scholarship - $250-$1,000

Special Grants and Scholarships - The CITE awards special grants and scholarships to support educators, organizations, and students advance transformative education efforts in selected focus areas such as special education, art and music education, and educational technology. Please visit the CITE's website for additional details.

CONNECTIONS

The CITE...

ENCOURAGES transformative education by providing impeccable professional development experiences.

The CITE provides professional development for educators, schools, and informal education institutions on a variety of topics based on individual needs and special interests. Content is delivered both in person and via webinars which are archived on the CITE's webpage. The CITE staff has extensive training and knowledge of the current education landscape and adult learning theory resulting in professional development that audiences enjoy and embrace.

GIVING

HOW YOU CAN HELP

The CITE depends on the support of our generous donors who share our passion for providing students with transformative education experiences. We strive to keep our operating costs at a minimum. Individuals and organizations can donate with confidence that funds will go directly to supporting high-quality, innovative educational experiences, grants, and scholarships. Your donation can be directed to the CITE's general fund or a specific grant, scholarship, or program at your request. General fund donations are distributed according to the pie chart below.

WHERE DO MY DONATIONS GO?

CLEVELAND INSTITUTE FOR TRANSFORMATIVE EDUCATION
TEL. 440-734-3671
EMAIL: INFO@THECITE.ORG
WEBSITE: WWW.THECITE.ORG